Dear Parent/Carer,

An Inspector Calls, Grand Opera House, York

I am writing to inform you that I have reserved tickets for 'An Inspector Calls' by J.B Priestley at the Grand Opera House, York. This is a great opportunity to watch the original London cast perform a GCSE Literature performance close to home.

The details are as follows:

- Date: Wednesday 8 February
- Cost: Tickets £17.00 each, deadline for paying is 11 December on ParentPay
- Leave school 1:30 pm
- Return approx. 5:00 pm
- We will be walking to the theatre
- School uniform is to be worn as normal
- Spending money for refreshments/programme as necessary
- Full co-operation and best behaviour absolutely necessary

If your son/daughter would like a place on the trip, please complete the consent information and make payment via ParentPay to secure a place. Please get in touch with either myself or Miss Humphreys if you are experiencing financial difficulties but would like your child to attend the trip, as we may be able to help.

If you require any further information please contact either myself, Mr Gill at j.gill@voy.hslt.academy or Miss Humphreys at j.humphreys@voy.hslt.academy.

Thank you for your continued support,

Yours sincerely,

Mr J Gill
