Summer!

June is the start of summer in the northern hemisphere so it will get hotter. Later in the year students won't have to wear slipovers to school.

You should bring a water bottle to school to keep cool and hydrated.

There are around 6 weeks left until the summer holidays.

Fathers day

Fathers day is on the 15th and celebrates the people that celebrate us every day - our father figures. Parents are given one day each every year to be appreciated (excluding birthdays, anniversaries, etc.), Mothers on the 30th March, fathers on the 15th. Lots of people make cards, buy presents and spend days out with their father figures

This April's monthly topic:

Pride Month

June is the month of pride! People celebrate their gender, sexual orientation, and much much more. The celebrations are after the stonewall riots in 1969, where hundreds of people in the US rioted against the cruelty shown to LGBTQIA+ individuals, especially on police raids at the Stonewall pub. Now, LGBTQIA+ individuals are celebrated and have the same opportunities as everyone else (in most countries). In June, there are parades, parties, and lots of fun! Our school is taking part in the main parade in York!!

Book of the month:

"The Blitz Bus" by Glen Blackwell tells the story of Jack and Emmie, who are unexpectedly transported back to London during the Blitz in 1940. They must navigate the dangers of wartime, including dodging bombs and watchful policemen, while also befriending a Polish refugee and trying to figure out how to return to their own time. The book is a fictional wartime adventure that combines time travel with the historical realities of World War II, offering an engaging and educational experience for young readers.
